

The Eritrean Ambassador to Sudan, Mr. Issa Ahmed Issa, conducted a seminar to Eritrean nationals residing in Port Sudan on May 14.

The Eritrean Ambassador to Sudan, Mr. Issa Ahmed Issa, conducted a seminar to Eritrean nationals residing in Port Sudan on May 14.

In the seminar that focused on the objective situation in the Homeland and the role of every citizen in the national resolute rebuff, he pointed out that public awareness is gaining momentum in the face of mounting acts of conspiracy and challenges. In this respect, Mr. Issa stated that thanks to the firm unity of the Eritrean people at home and abroad, external acts of conspiracy are being rebuffed, while development programs are being reinforced.

Stressing the significance of strengthening organizational capacity and raising awareness, the Ambassador called on Eritreans in Port Sudan to strength their organizational capacity so that they may enhance contribution to the national cause.

Ambassador conducts seminar to Eritreans in Port Sudan

Monday, 17 May 2010 13:19

The participants of the seminar on their part voiced determination to live up to the nation's expectations. They also elected an executive committee that coordinates their activities.