

The participants and observers of the 19th anniversary of Independence Day celebrations said that the creative and innovative skill of youths is being amply demonstrated in the celebrations.

Asmara, 17 May 2010 - The participants and observers of the 19th anniversary of Independence Day celebrations said that the creative and innovative skill of youths is being amply demonstrated in the celebrations.

They explained that the magic and circus shows in particular won broad acclaim on the part of the spectators. Reports indicated that the shows highlight the struggle waged to achieve independence and safeguard sovereignty.

Among the foreign spectators, Mr. Zubier Hamid from Sudan and Kevin Migras stated that they were highly impressed with the enthusiastic celebrations on the part of the general public.